Reservation Form

Policies Agreed To For Use Of Optimist Farm:

1. The Optimist Farm may be reserved by Scout Troops, church groups, and other organized groups. Responsible adult Leaders are required to be in attendance at all times.
2. Club members may use the farm as individuals or as family group at any time, provided they do not interfere with group activities previously scheduled. Club members are expected to accompany guests.
3. Club members may reserve the farm for social group activities. If it conflicts with a non-member reservation, members can pay the normal fee or select another open date. Standard fees apply to member reservations for groups i.e. civic, church, professional except non-funded youth group that do not charge fees. The club members making such reservations must be present at the event and are responsible for the condition of the facility after the event.
4. All users of the farm are required to exercise reasonable safety-precautions. Fire arms and fireworks are not permitted. Open fires are subject to existing State Fire Regulations and are permitted only in designated areas. Horseshoe games are to be in designated areas.
5. All plants and animals must be protected. Federal and State laws protect some and Club rules protect the remainder. Fishing Rules: Club members and guests (accompanied by a member), and groups attending scheduled events are permitted to fish subject to regulations of the NC Wildlife Commission. The use of a seine is not permitted.
6. No music or loud noise of any kind is permitted after 10:00 pm. Non-observance will result in loss of deposit.
7. Youth must be under direct adult supervision when inside the posted perimeter of the pond.
8. Housekeeping: The premises, both grounds and structures, must be in as good a condition as found. Garbage and trash must be removed from the premises. Remove any decorations, clean counter tops and Equipment. Return tables & chairs returned to proper place. The lodge floor must be swept and any stains removed. Turn off air conditioner, lights, close windows and lock doors. Replacement or repair of any damage is the responsibility of the renter. Security Deposits are refunded only after Manager's approval.
9. The Farm User shall hold harmless the Optimist Club, its officers, members, agents & helpers and indemnify them for all losses, injuries and expenses sustained by any of them on account of any claim for loss, damage, or injury growing out of the use of the facilities. Organizations must provide proof of Liability coverage with the Optimist Club shown as also insured.
